Facts

In support of this affidavit I state for the record:

1. On the day of 08/24/20 I sat down with Alex & Katie and they explained to me they was having trouble with their payroll and they was giving them problems for not having a social security number for me. On 08/17/20 I received forms W-4 and I-9 where I was initially asked for a social security number, I responded back with an in lieu of W-4, W-8, W-8ben and forms P-1 affidavit establishing Reasonable Cause declining the offer to provide a social security number and form P-2 stating my response to the I-9 followed by 3 other documents stating my rights and federal laws protecting my rights to not disclose a social security and still operate lawfully. They accepted my documents that day and continued to go about the regularly schedule, but on 08/24/20 they explained that payroll was having issues so we all sat down and called payroll on 08/24/20.
2. The payroll person that we talked to whose name I believe to be Kathy but don't quote me on that I'm most certainly positive that her name started with a K. She said she was having problems with me not having a social security number and that I NEEDED TO HAVE a social security number and asked if I applied for one. I asked if she read the documents I provided explaining my rights and the federal law protecting those rights I even read some of it to her, she replied that she would be able to do it but she would have to do it manually.
3. Me Alex & Katie discuss the conversation we just had with payroll, I explained that she said she can do it she would just have to do it manually I offer my resources to help them navigate with the matter by providing Alex with the IRS manually with how to deal with the matter and issue at hand and avoid any penalties. these instructions are straight from the IRS manually book on how to deal with someone who you don't have a social security number for and what acceptable forms can be used to establish Reasonable Cause. I emailed those files to Alex and was told take the next couple of days off till they figure it out.
4. I have yet to hear a word about the subject or any offers to come back, the schedule was out before we had this conversation but being told that I needed to have a social security and being denied my rights I was unable to return.
